Dear Parents,

We are pleased to inform you about the DAV United Magazine, a prestigious literary publication of our institution. This magazine is widely read and appreciated by students, faculty members, and alumni across DAV institutions.

The magazine offers a rich blend of articles and insights covering a wide spectrum of topics—from community developments and trending global practices to educational resources and diverse career opportunities. It serves as an excellent tool for enhancing students' awareness and intellectual development.

For the academic session 2025–26, a one-time subscription fee of ₹375/- per student has been set for five issues of the magazine.

We encourage all students particularly from Std. VIII to XII to subscribe and benefit from this informative publication.

The subscription amount is to be paid online through the link:

Last Date for Payment: 26th April 2025

✦ Important: After making the payment, kindly share the fee receipt with your class teacher for confirmation.

We look forward to your wholehearted cooperation in nurturing a culture of reading and informed learning among our students.

With regards,

Sd/-
