A library supports school readiness by improving literacy and listening skills. Children should know concepts related to books such as how to hold and turn the pages of a book and that the pictures are related to the story.

Teacher narrated a story from the story book.

Young children naturally have a capacity to use their imaginations. Reading aloud to the children helps them use their imaginations to explore people, places, times, and events beyond their own experiences. Reading as an imaginative activity can open doors to all kinds of new worlds for a child.

A LIBRARY IS A TOOL OF LEARNING AND A GARDEN OF WISDOM.
